

The Treasure Coast Genealogical Society

The Treasure Coast Genealogical Society (TCGS) was organized on January 23, 1980.

Meetings are held at 1:30 PM on the third Tuesday of the month, September through May in the meeting room at Susan B. Kilmer Branch Library, 101 Melody Lane at the waterfront on the Indian River in downtown Fort Pierce.

TCGS volunteers provide FREE ancestor research assistance to the public in the genealogical area on the 2nd floor of Susan B. Kilmer Branch Library every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

The Society also holds FREE genealogy workshops for members and the public.

Society Objectives

To unite the educational efforts of persons interested in the art and science of genealogy

To promote scientific methods of research

To promote the study of history, geography and the social customs of our ancestors

To preserve and save from destruction any and all vital records having any degree of genealogical significance

To make available to the public, general knowledge concerning the availability of records, and the location of those records

To foster the compilation of available records in such forms as to increase their usefulness
